

Name: _____

Date: _____

1: What is the difference between an apprentice and an artisan?

2: What was life like for children during the early colonial period? (Be sure to specify between boys and girls).

3. Each section of the English colonies had different economies. What did each section depend on selling for a living?

New England:

Middle Colonies:

Southern Colonies:

4. The products made in the colonies would be shipped to Europe. Europe would then trade finished goods to Africa for slaves. The slaves would then be transported to be sold in the colonies. This type of trade route would be called a:

5. What was the route between Africa and the colonies called?

6. What does it mean to be self-sufficient?

7. What was a town common?

8. The South had very large farms called:

9. Briefly explain the following three groups:

Planters:

Overseers:

Slaves:

10. Where would a slave work in the North when compared to the South?

11. How did slaves in the North have more opportunities than those in the South?

12. Could slaves travel on their own? Where there special circumstances that would permit this if it was not allowed?

13. Slave families could be broken up at any time. Is this True or False. (Circle one).

14. Why did slave owners ban the playing of instruments? What was the real intended purpose of those instruments?