

History Test #1

Name: _____

Date: _____

Inuit	Bering Straight	land bridge
roads	artifacts	Anasazi
surplus	kayak	Mayan
Incan	drought	war
messengers	Mound Builders

1. The Incan empire was unified by _____.
 2. Early newcomers to North America crossed this sea region from Asia: _____.
 3. Aztecs expanded their empire through _____.
 4. The Inuit used a _____ to help with travel and hunting.
 5. _____ is when you have an excess, or extra, of a certain good.
 6. _____ is what historians think caused the Anasazi to leave their land.
 7. _____ constructed areas of land used for burial grounds, religious reasons and for different ceremonies.
1. An irrigation system is
 - A. multiple rivers coming from lakes
 - B. a series of ditches dug to carry water to crops
 - C. a new invention created by the Inuits
 - D. something that helped in the creation of houses
 2. How were people able to come to North America from Asia?
-

3. The first people crossed the Bering Strait because
 - A. it was too cold for them in Asia.
 - B. They wanted to follow herds of animals.
 - C. They wondered what the new land would be like.
4. This group expanded through war primarily
 - A. Inuit
 - B. Aztecs
 - C. Inca
 - D. Anasazi
5. Which of these was not an advancement made by the Mayan civilization?
 - A. Creating an accurate calendar
 - B. Building pyramids
 - C. Using the number zero
 - D. Creating a system of roads
6. The Aztecs sacrificed prisoners of war to their gods.
True False
7. The first people came to North America after the Ice Age.

True False

1. Why could people specialize? (In other words, why were they able to do one type of job of interest to them?)
