

History Test #2

Name: _____

Date: _____

Peace	totem pole	shaman
longhouse	horses	Hopi
reservation	kiva	tribe
lodge	Oraibi	wampum
cultural region	powwow

1. A group of families bound together under a single leadership is a _____.
  2. An area in which people with similar cultures live is called a _____.
  3. This is an example of a town of a tribe in the Southwest desert
_____.
  5. _____ was the healer of a tribe and can be compared to doctors today.
  6. A _____ represented the underworld.
  7. A _____ was a house used by the Plains Natives that was a hut built over a deep hole.
-
1. Horses were important to Plains Natives because
    - A. They measured wealth with them
    - B. They made it easier to hunt animals
    - C. It made it easier to pull travois
    - D. All of the above.

2. Natives of the Northwest Coast did not have to grow crops. (True or False)? Why was this (not) the case?

---

3. What was a kachina?

- A. A mask
- B. A dance
- C. A spirit
- D. None of the above.

4. The Spanish word for village is

- A. Mesa
- B. Pueblo
- C. Casa
- D. Hoy

5. Horses were native to North and South America

- True                      False

7. A kiva symbolized marriage within a tribe.

- True                      False

8. The Iroquois Trail linked the lands of the Iroquois League.

- True                      False

1. What did the Iroquois League do for its members. Be sure to list everything we discussed.

---

---

---

---

---

2. What was the party that Natives held to show wealth and generosity in the Northwest Coast region?

---

3. In Hopi villages who was able to govern? What group was able to own property?

---

---

---

4. What was the purpose of the kachina doll?

---

---

---