

Pre-Revolution/Beginnings of Revolt Test

Name: _____

Date: _____

1: Parliament is:

- a. The British lawmaking body
- b. The Colonial lawmaking bodies
- c. The King's personal advisors
- d. The British court system

2: The British needed to tax the colonies due to which war?

- a. The Revolutionary War
- b. The French and British War
- c. The French and Indian War
- d. The War for Independence

3: Why were the colonists so upset over the taxes imposed on them?

4: The Stamp Act of 1765 put a tax on

- a. Tea
- b. Paper materials
- c. Imports
- d. Letters only

5: What was the difference between the Sons of Liberty and the Daughters of Liberty?

6: What is a tariff?

7: Explain how the Tea Act hurt colonial merchants. (You may also draw a diagram instead in the space below.)

Pre-Revolution/Beginnings of Revolt Test

8: What was the Boston Tea Party?

9: What was the name of the acts that Britain imposed on Boston. List the three parts.

10: A Patriot was an individual who was loyal to the King. Is that statement true or false? If false, rewrite the sentence to make it true.

11: The British were marching to Concord to set up a fort. Is that statement true or false? If false, rewrite the sentence to make it true.

12: List the outcome of each battle. (Who won?)

Battle of Lexington

Battle of Concord

Battle of Bunker Hill
